Telegraph Agency of the U.S.S.R. (Tass), Moscow, U.S.S.R.:

Gathering and transmitting American news and United Nations to the USSR. Our news sources include: the despatches of American news agencies with which we have contractual relations (The Associated Press and the United Press International); newspapers published in New York, Washington and various other cities of the United States and Latin America; magazines and other periodicals; press releases and reports issued by governmental and private agencies and institutions.

In addition, our correspondents directly cover important press conferences, public meetings and other developments when circumstances and our resources permit. For instance, Tass correspondents cover the meetings of the United Nations Security Council and other United Nations bodies; our correspondents in Washington cover White House and State Department press conferences and important congressional debates, etc. On the basis of these sources we write our daily news reports. After the reports are written and edited, they are transmitted through the usual commercial communications channels. At the present time, our entire wordage is transmitted via RCA. Our area of coverage includes Latin America as well as the United States and our reports on Latin America are based on the despatches of the American news agencies and on Latin American newspapers and periodicals.
